

Dear Parents and Carers,

We're excited to let you know that we have a fantastic second half of the summer term planned, full of events, celebrations, and enriching cultural activities.

We understand how quickly family calendars can fill up, so we're sharing key dates in advance to help with planning. More detailed information about each event or trip will be sent out closer to the time.

Thank you for your continued support—we're looking forward to a memorable half term!

Please see the list of important dates below:
